

Proven. Prepared. Protected. Security at America's Nuclear Power Plants

An eight-minute, streaming video clip presenting the security measures in effect at nuclear power plants, including a regimen of armed guards, patrols, detection equipment, and physical barriers, as well as the design of the plant itself. In addition, company security directors and plant security officers share their expertise in keeping our nation's nuclear plants secure.

This video can be viewed on the Google Video website at the following URL:
<http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-2984995674597546526>